ANNA GOULD GIVES NOTICE OF INTENT TO WED PRINCE

PARIS, June 20. The marriage banns of Mme, Anna Gould, formerly the Countess de Castellane, and Prince Helie de Sagan, a cousin of Mme. Gould's former husband, were this morning posted on the walls of Paris, in accordance with the law that requires the publication of a marriage in the arrondissement of each contracting party. Norther Mme. Gould nor the Prince de Sagan acceased personally in the mayor's office, friends acting for them.

The document is preceded by the marriage declaration of a seamstress and followed by that of a butcher and reads as follows:

as follows:

"This publication of an intended marriage between Marie Pierre Camille Louis Helie Boson do Talleyrand-Perigord Prince de Sagan, rentier domiciled at No. 11, Rue Sedillot, eldest son of Charles Gaillaume Frederic Boson de Talleyrand-Perigord, Dake de Sagan and Talleyrand, without profession, and Anna Gould, without profession, domiciled at No. 126 Avenue Malakoff, daughter of Jay Gould and Helen Miller, deceased, diverced from Marie-Paul Boniface, Count de Castellane, of which acknowledgment has been drawn up, is posted this day on the doors of the mayor's offices."

The document gives the age of Mme, Gould at 33 and Prince de Sagan as 49, Although the marriage will not take place in France the French law reduires that the banns be published in the place of domicile. The exact place and dato of the wedding have not yet been disclosed, but it will be celebrated within a fortnight and very quietly, only a few friends and relatives, including George J. Gould, being present. The religious eremany will be according to the Protestant rite, Prince Helie has not renonneed his Catholic faith.

Count Boni de Castellane has not yet made any legal move and Mme, Gould's lawyers do not thus he will set until after the marriage. They are confident his efforts to accure possession of the children will be futile.
